Norman G. Finkelstein received his doctorate from the Department of Politics, Princeton University, for a thesis on the theory of Zionism. He is the author of the world renowned books titled:

- The Holocaust Industry: Reflections on the Exploitation of Jewish Suffering
- Image and Reality of the Israel-Palestine Conflict
- The Rise and Fall of Palestine with Ruth Bettina Birn
- A Nation on Trial: The Goldhagen Thesis and Historical Truth

His writings have appeared in prestigious journals such as the London Review of Books, Index on Censorship, Journal of Palestine Studies, New Left Review, Middle East Report, Christian Science Monitor and Al-Ahram Weekly. Currently he teaches political science at DePaul University in Chicago.

Norman Finkelstein was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1953. He is the son of Maryla Husyt Finkelstein, survivor of the Warsaw Ghetto, Maidanek concentration camp, and Zacharias Finkelstein, survivor of the Warsaw Ghetto, Auschwitz concentration camp. He dedicated his first book to his parents in which he wrote: "May I never forgive or forget what was done to them."

While researching his second book, The Rise and Fall of Palestine: The Intifada Years, he lived with Palestinian families in the Occupied Territories and is a first hand source testifying to the horrid truth of Israel occupation.
